FAMILY FARE

LET'S FACE IT. Kids can be loud, even at restaurants. So isn't it nice that there are places you can go where you can mingle with parents of other active children? Here are a few spots that provide fun for the whole family.

Paradise Bakery and Café

If a sweet tooth is your child's guide to restaurants, look no further than Paradise Bakery. From Big Paradise Cookies and Paradise Muffins to 24 Carrot Cake, cinnamon rolls and Double Fudge Brownies, this café has sugar cravings covered. Add freshly made sandwiches, garden salads and daily soups, and a mature crowd can satisfy its tastes, too. A perfect stop for breakfast or lunch, this bakery is conveniently located in The Shops at Gainey Village. It has indoor and outdoor seating, and is perfect for parents and children looking to share good food and good times.
