

For Immediate Release

June 5, 2006

Paradise Bakery to Open in Linens 'N' Things Plaza

Indianapolis, Indiana- McKinley is proud to welcome Paradise Bakery & Café to the Linens 'N' Things Plaza in the Castleton Corner-area. The new 5,500 square-foot Paradise Bakery & Café will join current shopping center tenants such as Linens 'N' Things, Advance Furniture Outfitters, Buffalo Wild Wings restaurant, Sweet Dreams mattresses and other retail stores. The café is expected open in October 2006.

With delicious baked goods made each morning from scratch and using only the finest ingredients, the café will be impossible to resist. Their breakfasts, soups, salads, sandwiches and other food will satisfy any appetite. Paradise is a recognized leader in the expanding bakery and café industry and their newest store will add a unique flavor to the area.

Paradise opened its original location in California in 1976 and has expanded to forty locations in ten states. This will be the second Paradise location in the Indianapolis-area. More information about Paradise Bakery & Café, including a detailed menu, can be found at www.paradisebakery.com.

McKinley, founded in 1968, is a well-respected real estate investment firm that owns and operates $1.2 billion in assets. For its own account and select clientele, it manages 103 properties, including 15,000 apartments and 5 million square feet of commercial space located in 9 states nationwide. Albert M. Berriz serves as Chief Executive Officer of McKinley, headquartered in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and employs 650 full-time workers nationwide.